...majors on all the most important aspects of vinyl LP
– passion, emotion and fun.

- ... has a lush midband that's warm without being woolly.
- ... this gutsy deck revelled in supplying a joyous amount of bottom end
- The sense of separation was nothing short of breathtaking...
- ... a soundstage that easily reached beyond my speakers...
- Pro-Ject's Debut Carbon EVO sounds closer to a mid-level turntable than a super-budget one – and that's its genius. A self-assured sound with no nasties, allied to an easy-going yet engaging personality will win it many fans.
